

Cornerstone Award Nomination

The dictionary defines a cornerstone as a fundamental building block on which the foundation of something rests. We know there are numerous individuals who fit this description. Individuals who have given their time and dedicated their lives to make Wayne County a better place to live, work, and raise a family. This lifelong achievement award is presented annually to an individual, living or deceased: that has committed their all in service for the betterment of Goldsboro and Wayne County.

The award recipient may be either a man or woman. If a man and woman have performed outstanding services together during the course of the year, each may be awarded a plaque.

The recipient of the Cornerstone Award must be over the age of 40. Once a person has been awarded the Cornerstone Award, he or she will not be eligible again for this award.

The person chosen for the Cornerstone Award will have rendered outstanding service for Wayne County. The limitations of this service are not defined because meaningful service to the community is often long range. However, special emphasis should be given to service performed during the current year.

The recipient's accomplishments may or may not be connected with the Wayne County Chamber of Commerce programs, nor does the recipient have to be a member of the Wayne County Chamber of Commerce. If the recipient is deceased, the award would be presented to his/her family representative.

Past recipients who have demonstrated extraordinary effort and dedicated commitment to the principles of growth and expansion through dynamic leadership and whose attitude and example sets the standard for our community are:

Richard B. Moffatt, Hal Tanner, Sr., Clarence "Icky" Peacock, William Dees, Jr., Hal Plonk, Bertha Shepherd Wooten, Ollie Toomey, Troy Pate, Jr., Jimmie Edmundson, William P. Kemp, Jr., Dr. Edward Wilson, Jr., David Weil, William Bryan, Wes Seegars, Bill Winslow, Ed Borden, Dr. David Tayloe, Keith R. Gunnet, Emily N. Weil, George Russell Kornegay, Jr., Alfonzo King, Irvin Ray McDonald Sr., Philip A. Baddour, Jr., James E. Williams and Mayor Chuck Allen.

The Cornerstone Award will be presented at the 2022 Wayne County Chamber of Commerce Annual Banquet. The award recipient's name will also be placed on a plaque and inserted into the wall at The Hub formerly known as Cornerstone Commons in downtown Goldsboro.
